Dear Friends and Colleagues:

On Saturday, April 19, 2008 African Hope Committee will celebrate its 3rd Annual Immigrant Week that will continue to bring together the African immigrant community as well as other immigrant groups residing in New York City area. Immigrant History week is a city-wide celebration that honors and bring together immigrants in New York City.

The theme of this year event's is:

“ Tales of African Immigrant in New York City” where children and youth age 5 to 19 will be reading African poems, fables and proverbs. They will perform African Dance and a short video clips will be presenting to remind our kids and youth where they come from.

The event is scheduled from 2pm-5pm at the New York Public Library on 924 west 124th Street, Between 4th and Lenox Avenue.

We are inviting you to participate and listen to children and youth of African descent as well as African American children perform African poems and proverbs. We hope you will accept our invitation and to join us in this effort to promote New York City Immigrant Week.

For more information about the event, Please contact: Clarisse Mefotso, Executive Director of African Hope Committee Inc., at 212-862-9010 or 917-915-3071 or email at: cmefotso@afriquehope.org . Please visit AHC website at: www.afriquehope.org for more information.
